CANVASSERS FOR PAPER FIND SLIM PICKING IN DIXON

FOUR MEMBERS OF CANVASSING CREW FOR DIXON PAPER APPEAL TO KENT

MAGISTRATE KENT HELPS THEM

Men Ask for Their Railroad Fare and $2.10 Commissions and Krauss Has to Dig Up.

The police court rooms of Magistrate W. G. Kent was the scene of angry debate this morning when members of the canvassing crew that has been soliciting in Dixon for subscriptions to a Dixon newspaper appeared before him and unfolded their grievances. They declared that they had not been treated fairly by H. L. Krauss of Chicago, who had been acting as manager of the crew.

The men, there are four of them, declared to Magistrate Kent that they had resigned their positions and wanted to get back to Chicago. They were all broke and had appealed to Krauss for their commissions, which they claimed were due them, and also for railroad fare back to the city which, they claimed, was due them according to the terms of their agreement. They stated that they had been refused the money and could not get out of town. The canvassers appeared to be very gentlemanly fellows, and stated that there was due them, beside the railroad fare of each back to Chicago, which is a matter of something less than $2 each, their commissions for subscriptions they had secured. The commissions, they claimed, amounted to $2.10 for the bunch, which brought the total amount claimed up to $9.34. E. B. Graupner claimed 35c for commissions, C. H. Pitcher claimed $1.20 and R. J. Morse claimed 65c. G. B. Whitman, the fourth member of the crew, did not claim any commissions. The boys said that the amount they asked was for work since the first of this week, but not last week, for they had been paid for last week's work.

Magistrate Kent took the part of the canvassers and made Krauss dig up the money. The canvassers intend to leave for Chicago this evening.

Mr. Graupner, as spokesman for the rest of the crew, stated in Magistrate Kent's court this morning that the reason they refused to work longer on the project here was that they had been unconsciously misrepresenting the premium which they were promising prospective subscribers if they would take the paper.

The family theatre has been very fortunate in securing a big feature picture called 'A Drama in the Air.' This is without doubt the most wonderful picture ever taken and would be almost impossible to enumerate the risks and difficulties encountered in securing the masterpiece. This picture will be shown tomorrow, Friday evening.

MOTHERS' DAY TO BE ON MAY 11TH

PROTESTANT CHURCHES URGED TO PROPER OBSERVANCE OF THE DAY.

All of the Protestant ministers of Illinois have been asked to observe Mothers' day, Sunday, May 11, when it is expected a special tribute will be paid to motherhood in every pulpit of the state. A letter addressed to the sectarian pastors sent out recently by Rev. Wm. B. Millard, executive secretary of the Chicago Church Federation Council, asking for the co-operation of the ministers in the observance of this day was received here recently.

Mothers' day is rapidly becoming one of the foremost honored days in the ecclesiastical calendar, says the letter. While it is always in order on this day to give utterance to the highest tribute to motherhood that a grateful heart can frame, a call has been issued by the Illinois commission on marriage and divorce for an observance of the day, which will be of the most practical value.

The Roman Catholic church takes high ground on marriage and divorce and already is in line. The Jewish people are in accord. Let not the history of Protestant churches, with a long history of aggressive and constructive activity along all lines of social, moral and religious betterment allow themselves to be outdone in zeal for the protection of the home.

SEND RESOLUTION TO LEGISLATURE

ILLINOIS WOMEN'S CLUBS SUPPORTING WHITE PINE FOREST MEASURE.

Eight hundred copies of the following resolutions are being sent to the members of the general assembly by the conservation department of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs of which Mrs. J. C. Seyster of Oregon is a member, in connection with the Oregon Women's Council. The resolutions were prepared originally by request for the forestry class of the Chicago Women's club, by Mrs. Horace G. Kauffman.

Whereas, The state of Illinois is essentially a prairie region and its forest tracts limited in number and extent, even at the time of its early settlement and,

Whereas, The White Pine Forest tract, situated in Ogle county, is the sole remnant of one of those forest tracts, and the only remaining tract of the southernmost extension of this species of white pine once so prevalent in all the Lake states, and,

Whereas, This White Pine Forest tract is in the possession of private owners who may at any time cut down the large trees for commercial purposes and,

Whereas, The entire tract of both old and young trees is in danger at all times of destruction by fire, and,

Whereas, It is desirable that this tract be cared for scientifically and practically under expert forestry management and made an object lesson to the whole state in forest regeneration and forest preservation, and,

Whereas, In addition to the preservation of these white pine trees for forest purposes, the tract is one of unique and picturesque beauty (increased by the waters of Pine creek, a tributary of the Rock river, flowing through the region), and it is altogether worthy of being made into a state park for the benefit and enjoyment of all the people of the state of Illinois,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we, the members, do hereby urgently, earnestly and respectfully request the members of the general assembly of the state of Illinois this session to pass the bill for the purchase of this white pine forest tract of Ogle county for a state forest reserve and state park.

Rock Island, Apr. 30—As Justice P. H. Wells was about to pronounce Ralph Wyant, formerly of Chicago, and Miss Adele Rogers, an actress, man and wife, Harlan G. Kauffman of Oregon, Ill., a colleague of the groom-to-be, stepped in and prevented the ceremony.

Kauffman and Wyant have been license away from Wyant and tore it into shreds in the office of the justice.

Miss Rogers and Wyant both protested against the interference of Kauffman, the latter representing he was acting for the parents of Wyant. Miss Rogers told the justice she met Kauffman on the Pacific coast three years ago; that he had wooed her there, and that he was now seeking to prevent her marriage to another because she would not accept him. DEMENTTOWN ... DOINGS

A local druggist says that the principal requirement for a drug clerk these days is to be able to run a soda fountain, sell stamps, look up addresses in the directory and change small bills after the supper hour.

Since the Standard Oil company was dissolved the price of gasoline has advanced three times. Draw your own conclusions.

Auto Men's Fiction

"Say, when I step on her tail and give this old chump chariot the gas, I go so fast the telephone poles along the side of the road look like a picket fence."

"Oh, I get about nineteen miles out of a gallon on a good road, but mine is the only car in this man's town that will do it."

"Whenever I see a friend on the street, I pick him up and give him a ride."

I haven't got any electric lights, self-starter, cigar-lighter, curling irons or fireless cooker in my car, but I have got an engine, believe me. I can go up a hill faster than any other car in this town can go down hill. The last motor cop who chased me didn't look any bigger than a microbe on a flea's hind leg when I looked back three minutes after the race started."

"Notree her take the corners? Some boat, what?"

"You ought to see her when she is running right. The differential is crossed with the brake beam now. That makes the little noise you notice."

"If anybody should come to me right now and offer me $800 more for this wagon than I paid for it I would say: 'Friend, this automobile is not for sale.' Just to show you how much I think of this car, I would rather get stuck in the mud in this car and stay there all day than to ride on a dry pavement in any other car made."

KILL U. S. MINING MAN

Mexican Rebels Put Many Foreigners to Death.

William B. A. Dingwall Loses Life Because He Refuses to Give Up Money.

Washington, May 1.—The manager of a British-owned mine at Matehuala, San Luis Potosi, and several other foreigners have been put to death by Mexican rebels because they refused to contribute money to the revolution. Neither the names nor the number of those killed were given in the report.

William B. A. Dingwall, an American citizen, the owner of a foundry and director of the Santa Maria de la Paz Mining company, was killed by the rebels in their attack on Matehuala, State of San Luis Potosi, according to the reports.

Dingwall, who is said to have been one of the wealthiest residents of the district, was killed owing to his refusal to give up money to the rebels.

A decree issuing $5,000,000 worth of paper currency was made public by Governor Carranza, the constitutional war leader. The paper is to be redeemable after the constitutionalists obtain control of the national government.

GIRL DIES HORRIBLE DEATH

Succumbs to Hydrophobia After Struggling Madly in Father's Arms.

New Brunswick, N. J., May 1.—Notified at the eleventh hour that his seven-year-old daughter, Mary, was dying of rabies in the Pasteur Institute in New York, Joseph Saclette of this city went to get her and take her home. He risked his life to do it. For he was compelled to hold the little girl in an iron grip all the forty miles of the way. Screaming, struggling and showing all the other symptoms of hydrophobia she fought her father and when he finally got her into her home she struggled to attack her little brothers and even her mother. They reached home at 5:30 in the evening. The child died at six o'clock.

BURN TO DEATH IN K. C.

Two Men Reported Cremated in Lodging House Blaze.

Kansas City, Mo., May 1.—Two men were reported to have burned to death in a fire that practically destroyed the annex to the Helping Hand institute, a cheap three-story lodging house, at Fourth and Wyandotte streets. Several lodgers were asleep in the building and it was feared the clearing away of ruins would disclose a much greater death list. To Peter Klink, a one armed lodger, those sleepers who escaped the flames probably owe their lives.

LIVE LIFE GLADLY.

By Elmer Allen Bess.

If we could see within the scheme of things,
We might discover joys right-living brings,
And gain the heights at once, which we must reach
Before we learn the lessons life will teach.

The woe and pain which we have shunned as dross,
The simple burdens which we count our cross,
Might prove the rarest boon our lives could claim
If we could find the best in virtue's name.

The finest blossoms deep in shadows grow,
The purest pearls wait down in depths below;
But shadows blend from very common hues,
And pearly depths are only rains and dews.

If we could stand behind the life we see,
And feel the throb of life as life must be,
We might forget our frettings, doubts and fears,
And live life gladly through the present years.

If we have been hunting for trouble, we have found it. There is plenty of it in this varied old world. Some of us may have over-worked the contention that ideas are things, but one thing is very certain: If we get an idea that there is nothing but evil in life, nothing but worry and disaster, our situation has changed for the worse already. Asserting that vice, crime, calamity and the hosts of evil do not exist, is not always the method to create happiness, but believing that there is no evil but has

OBITUARY

Miss Enola Smucker

Within a month of the day when she was to receive her diploma as a graduate nurse of the Sherman hospital training school, Miss Enola Smucker, died at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Miss Smucker's death was indirectly due to her faithful work as a student nurse, for she had labored so hard that when an infection attacked her throat, her weakened physical condition made her an easier prey to the disease.

Class mates who will graduate next month are saddened by the death of the young woman, whose untimely demise will rob the commencement exercises of much of their usual joy. Miss Smucker was popular with her classmates and many friends.

Enola Smucker was 21 years, 5 months old. She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smucker 227 Walnut avenue. She was born at Arlington Heights and later received her education at Dixon and later in this city, where she attended the Elgin high school.

She had completed the two and one half years' training course at Sherman hospital, and went to Chicago for three and one half months' special course. She completed this a week ago, and came home feeling slightly ill. Her condition rapidly became worse until her death on Wednesday. Friends denied that the throat infection was received directly from her work.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Baptist church, Rev. A. E. Purkiss, officiating. A brief private service at the late residence preceded. Miss Smucker had been a member of the Christian church.—Elgin Courier.

John Barden.

The death of John Barden, for many years a resident of Oregon, occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Barnett Monday evening, Apr. 28. The deceased had been in failing health for several months past, having been a sufferer from cancerous affection. Two daughters, Mrs. Barnett and Miss Ada Barden, survive him.

Oliver Thompson.

Ashton Gazette: Oliver L. Thompson, one of the oldest men of this city, died last Wednesday evening after an illness of several months. He was born June 4, 1833 and was almost 80 years of age. A peculiar coincidence lies in the fact that the deceased and John Thompson of this city were the same age to a day, although no relation, and were born on different continents.

Mr. Thompson was a painter by Sweden and spent a number of years as a sailor. He was married twice.

Mr. Thompson was a painter by trade and for 40 years was employed by the Chicago & Northwestern in that capacity.

The funeral service was held Saturday at 10 a. m. from the late home and Rev. R. L. MasWherter, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so calves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it. In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.

BRANDS AUSTRIAN PRINCE A SUICIDE

Marie Larisch, in "My Past," Says Rudolph Plotted to Seize Throne.

COUNTESS' BOOK IS DEFICIENT

Implicates Archduke John of Tuscany Who, as John Orth, Disappeared and Whose Fate is Still Unknown—Details Lacking.

London, May 1.—The memoirs of Countess Marie Larisch, entitled "My Past," published here, contain a sensational version of the Meyerling tragedy. In her book the countess states that the crown prince was plotting to separate Hungary from Austria and to seize the Hungarian throne. When his plot was discovered he committed suicide in fear of his father's wrath.

The countess relates how the prince came to her and begged her to aid him, saying that if she did not everything would be lost. He wanted her to bring Princess Mary to him at Hluburg. Upon leaving her the prince gave her a small steel casket, cautioning her to keep it safe and explaining that it was imperative that it should not be found in his possession. She was to deliver it only to the person who should claim it upon uttering the mystic letters "R. I. U. O."

Says It Was Archduke John. The crown prince added that the danger menacing him was of a political nature. He said:

"If I were to confide in the emperor I would sign my death warrant."

Soon after the death of the crown prince, the countess says that she received a letter signed with the letters "R. I. U. O." in which she was requested to bring the steel casket to a secluded spot, where she met a cloaked figure, whom she recognized as the Arch Duke John of Tuscany, who afterwards became John Orth and eventually disappeared while on a trip to South America.

What the public expected was an authentic account of that terrible scene at Meyerling twenty-four years ago, but it gets nothing of the kind. The countess summarizes her explanation thus:

No Light on Meyerling Affair. "What actually happened during the time Marie and Rudolph were alone at Meyerling is entirely a matter for conjecture. There is not the slightest doubt that the prince anticipated a crisis of some sort, and it is unquestionable that he and Archduke John had planned a coup d'etat together."

"Something transpired to make Rudolph afraid of the consequences should his plans miscarry. He may have felt that flight or a return to Vienna was equally impossible and, rendered desperate through fear and inflamed by brandy, made up his mind to kill himself."

The London press has taken a doubtful opinion of the correctness of the countess' statements. The Daily Mail says:

"Most persons would be inclined to call the account preposterous."

ADMIT AUTOS TO YOSEMITE

Secretary Lane Rescinds Order Governing National Park.

Washington, May 1.—Secretary Lane rescinded an order barring automobiles from the Yosemite National park. "This form of transportation has come to stay," said the secretary in a statement explaining his action, "and to close the park against automobiles would be as absurd as the fight for many years made by old naval men against the adoption of steam in the navy. Before we know it they will be dropping into the Yosemite by airship."

MICE STIR ARISTOCRATS

Cause Fire Alarm to Ring in Exclusive Washington Hotel.

Washington, May 1.—Mice gnawing the insulation off the fire signaling apparatus and closing the circuit at four o'clock in the morning, turned in an alarm of fire that brought Senator Root and several other half-dressed occupants of an exclusive apartment house of the Avenue of the Presidents into the street. Representative Rogers of Massachusetts and former Senator Beveridge live in the same apartment. No rising bell ever rang in this aristocratic house at this unusually early hour before.

La Follette's Brother Dies. Madison, Wis., May 1.—William T. La Follette, only brother of Senator Robert M. La Follette, died of heart disease after a prolonged illness. He was sixty-six years old. His wife died in February, 1911. Six children survive.

Icebergs Are Numerous. London, May 1.—Officials of the various transatlantic steamship companies received a report from the ice patrol off the coast of Nova Scotia saying that numerous bergs had been sighted.

FARMER'S WIFE ALMOST A WRECK

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Own Story.

Westwood, Md.—"I am a farmer's wife and do most of my own work when I am able. I had nervous spells, female weakness and terrible bearing down pains every month. I also suffered much with my right side. The pain started in my back and extended around my right side, and the doctor told me it was organic inflammation. I was sick every three weeks and had to stay in bed from two to four days.

"It is with great pleasure I tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I have followed your directions as near as possible, and feel much better than I have felt for years. When I wrote you before I was almost a wreck. You can publish this letter if you like. It may help to strengthen the faith of some poor suffering woman."—Mrs. JOHN F. RICHARDS, Westwood, Maryland.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

ANTI-ALIEN FIGHT PRACTICALLY OVER

Webb Bill Will Undoubtedly Be Passed With Small Opposition.

BRYAN IS IN SAN FRANCISCO

"I Have Nothing to Say. I Cannot Be Expected to Comment Upon a Situation So Delicate," Says President in Washington.

Sacramento, Cal., May 1.—The anti-alien fight seems practically over, so far as Sacramento is concerned.
The Webb bill will undoubtedly be passed with ridiculously small opposition.

The Democratic minority is committed to an anti-alien law by the platform the members of that minority themselves made.

The Progressives seem a unit in backing up the governor on the bill that now has become an administrative measure.

Governor Johnson is being showered with letters and documents on the Japanese question, in some of which the immigration question is taken up, the question that Mr. Bryan said he considered closed.

The Webb bill was debated in the senate today and can be forced to passage easily enough if Senators Birdsall, Thompson and Boynton, who are leading the fight for it, care to push it through. It is held that even if a fight should be started against it by Senator Wright that the debate need not be long, as there has been more than enough talk on the question during the last few days to satisfy everyone. The fight is really over, anyhow.

Governor Johnson heard nothing more from Washington. He does not seem to feel in the mood for further conferences.

Bryan in San Francisco.
San Francisco, May 1.—Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan, visiting California as special envoy from Washington, came up from Sacramento to spend a busy day as the guest of the officials of the Panama-Pacific Exposition company. He attended a luncheon, was driven on a tour of Golden Gate park, broke ground for the palace of agriculture on the exposition grounds and was the guest of honor at a banquet given at the Fairmont hotel in the evening.

Bryan did not allude to his special mission in either of his two brief addresses, one on the ground breaking ceremony and the other at the banquet.

Silent at White House.
Washington, May 1.—The shadow of silence has been thick upon the White House. Not a word or a comment has escaped from the office of the president. Telegrams from Secretary Bryan from California have been coming in.
A stenographic report of all Bryan's conferences with the governor and legislature of California, questions and answers, have been laid by wire upon the desk of the president. Mr.
Wilson spent the day in poring over this report and these dispatches. Late in the evening, contrary to his usual custom of seeing the newspaper men, he sent out the simple announcement:
"I have nothing to say. I cannot be expected to comment upon a situation so delicate."

The only item that comes from the White House is the statement that George W. Guthrie, late mayor of Pittsburgh, is appointed the new minister to Japan.

Many Cruisers Are Shifted.
From private but authentic sources
these things are learned:
The armored cruiser South Dakota has been ordered up from Acapulco, Mex., by the navy department, whose orders in this case date from suggestions of the state department.

The armored cruiser Colorado has been ordered from the west coast to report at San Diego. It is stated that the smaller draft vessels are all that is required for the Mexican ports on the Pacific coast. The Annapolis will take the place of the South Dakota. All the vessels of larger importance on the west coast of Mexico will be transferred to the Pacific coast as soon as possible. Each statement is accompanied with the diplomatic assurance that it has no reference to Japan.
